

How To Attract Luck And Windfall

How to attract luck, fortune and windfall? – that is the million $ question that people are seeking for. How does it come upon you and make you win that desirable 4-D and Toto prizes? Look around and you would notice that some individuals seem to be blessed with good luck. They tend to win regularly at lottery draws or any other games of chance. On the other hand, others seem to be surrounded with bad luck. Have you been wondering why?

I suppose one of the keys to unraveling this mystery is in person's Energy. Generally, we think of Luck or Fortune is influenced by positive energy. Now, you may ask, what is this positive energy? How to recognise its existence? Does it have a range of vibration frequency that brings you the so called Good Luck energy? So, in order to have good luck, people go to seek blessings from Masters, wear good luck charms or talismans or wealth attracting artifacts and stones.

Cai Shen Ye.

Most people, especially the Chinese, will go to get blessings from deities such as Cai Shen Ye, Tua Pek Gong or Wang Cai Shen. While some people even go to the dark forces to get that windfall blessings – like praying to ghosts and spirits - the Thai origin of Komantong and Pra-An, the Five Ghosts in Taoism and the Datuk Gong of our local community. (Personally, I do not advise seeking their favours. Nothing is for free and you may end up having to repay a “debt”, suffering unsavory repercussions.)

I personally feel that good luck energy is likely to be golden yellow in colour and align with our Solar Plexus chakra (as you know our body has 7 major energy centres called Chakras) Therefore, you find most of the yellow stones like Citrine, Golden Topaz, Yellow Sapphire, Yellow jade, golden calcite, Tiger Eye are worn as good fortune stones. Some green stones such as amazonite, aventurine, jade, malachite and peridot are also luck inducing stones.

Citrine – for Windfall Luck

Ametrine a hybrid stone composing of amethyst and citrine is also another lucky stone.

Ametrine – For attracting Good Luck

Sometimes, people would resort to Fengshui wealth enhancing solutions. Putting a pot of plant or an amethyst geode at this position would bring good fortune to the owner and its occupants. For example - at the fair left corner of a house diagonally opposite the main entrance is indicated as the “wealth corner”.

Amethyst Geode – Feng Shui

Have you ever noticed that more often than not those people gifted with good fortune are physically and energetically healthy? You do not find many sick people who are also lucky. It is also common that most people who seem to have good luck and good fortune are those who are sufficiently well provided. They are not poor or really hard up of money. Luck and windfall seem to favour them rather than those desperate guys who need money badly to make ends meet. Of course, there will always be exceptions.

What I am trying to say is that good luck and fortune is positive energy that can be cultivated. You must have a healthy body and mind for your body to receive this good energy. You can go to a Master to bless you or empower your good luck charms or talismans to induce that wealth energy into you. But these blessings in person and on the objects you wear are temporarily. You can waste them away by having a negative attitude or making yourself prone to negative energy.

Negative energy can come in the form of indulging in unhealthy life style such as excessive womanizing and drinking. Negative energy can also come by having an uncaring and selfish attitude and behavior towards others. Worst of all, people who are cunning and devious who deliberately cause harm to innocent people.

It is widely believe that too much fortune can correspondingly bring other misfortune in terms of health, accidents and troubled relationship, etc. So it is believed that if you do have a windfall, you either make some donation to charity or do some kind deeds for the needy, or go on an overseas trip to revitalize your luck energy.
